Support for Establishment of Professorship

Korean Studies Department

+82-2-804-1111 studies@kf.or.kr

Program Outline The KF provides financial support for efforts to create new professorships in the field of Korean studies and Korean language at various universities abroad that are equipped with the infrastructure necessary to maintain an adequate level of research and education on Korean studies and have future growth potential. Under this program, the KF funds the establishment and operation of two types of professorships : (1) Tenure Track Positions, in which the recipient university agrees to permanently maintain the position from its own resources after the termination of the KF's support, and (2) Endowed Chair Positions, in which the recipient university operates a permanent professorship with the KF through a jointly created endowment fund.

Eligible Applicants Universities outside of Korea that plan to create new professorships in Korean studies / Korean language

Eligible Areas Korean studies (humanities or social sciences) and Korean language

Details of Support	Tenure Track Position (TTP)
	The KF provides up to 70% of the total amount of the salary* and employee benefits for the TTP professor of Korean studies / Korean language to be hired by the recipient university.
Details of Support	Endowed Chair Position
	The KF provides an endowment on an annual basis during the grant period for the establishment of a permanent professorship in Korean studies / Korean language on the condition that the recipient institution provides a matching fund contribution of 50% on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

* Salary: the hired professor's salary in accordance with the existing professor salary table of the recipient university

 Employee benefits: the non-wage payments, such as fringe benefits and social welfare expenses, that an employer is required to pay to its employees according to the laws and regulations of the state or country to which the recipient organization belongs

Grant Period Three to five years

Prerequisites for the KF's Support This program aims to support universities that are willing to fund and maintain a newly established Korean studies professorship permanently from its own resources after the conclusion of the KF's support or through a jointly created endowment fund. In addition, universities should ensure that the holder of the professorship will be appointed and promoted through a thorough and fair review of his / her qualifications and accomplishments in accordance with their procedures for appointment, promotion, and tenure for faculty members.

Program Schedule

1. Application Period: July 1 to September 10, 2019(18:00 KST)
2. Notification of Results: December 2019
3. The grant period starts in either the 2020-21 or 2021-22 academic year

Required Documents

Support for Libraries with Korean Collections

Korean Studies Department

+82-64-804-1113 studies@kf.or.kr

Program Outline This support program is implemented in response to the fast-growing global demand for Korean studies. In particular, the program seeks to provide eligible libraries with financial support so that their Korea-related materials can be made more accessible to users and administered in a more effective manner, thereby enabling these libraries to function as vital resource centers for the advancement of Korean studies.

Eligible Applicants Applicant libraries are required to maintain a Korea-related collection that consists of more than 5,000 volumes.

Program Support Alternatives
(Only one alternative is allowed)

Personnel costs to retain a staff librarian dedicated to managing the library's Korean collection and administrative matters

Such support is made available for an agreed-upon interim period, after which the university must agree to maintain the subject position from its own resources.

Project costs to develop / upgrade digitization or cataloging system to administer the Korean collection in a more effective manner

Direct costs for activities that seek to broaden utilization of the Korean collection, such as exhibitions / demonstrations, lectures, and outreach initiatives

Period of Support Up to one year, for projects scheduled to start in 2020
(Multiple-year support will be considered, depending on the recipient library's circumstances and subject to an annual evaluation of the previous year's program outcomes and availability of the KF's program resources.)

Amount of Support The amount of the program support made available to a recipient library will be determined by the KF based on evaluation of all eligible applications. (The recipient library and the KF will agree to a suitable cost-sharing arrangement based on the applicant's program proposal and its particular situation.)

Program Schedule
1. Application Period: July 1 to September 10, 2019(18:00 KST)
2. Notification of support program recipients: December 2019 (Tentative)

Required Documents
1. Application form
2. A letter of endorsement from the head librarian that outlines the library's need for support from this program

How to Apply Applications should be submitted via the KF Online Application System (<http://apply.kf.or.kr>).
Please refer to the KF Online Application System (<http://apply.kf.or.kr>) for the latest announcements on changes to the program requirements prior to completing your application.

Evaluation Criteria

1. Feasibility of support proposal and capability to achieve intended outcomes

2. Current status of holdings and usage of library's Korean studies materials

3. Library's plans to further develop its Korean collection

4. Consideration of regional diversity

Report

An annual report, in accordance with the KF's report form and requirements, must be submitted by the library to confirm the proper application of the program support and to describe the relevant outcomes. The report must be accompanied by an accounting report drafted by the recipient institution's financial officer.

We are also conducting a survey of libraries interested in hosting the KF library intern(s). Please refer to the application form for more information.

Support for Korean Studies e-Resources

Korean Studies Department
 ☎ +82-64-804-1110 ✉ e-resources@kf.or.kr

Program Outline In response to the fast-growing significance of online resources for the advancement of Korea-related scholarship, the KF offers a "Support for Korean Studies e-Resources" program. Under this program, the KF provides cost-sharing assistance to selected universities and libraries to reduce the costs of subscription / user fees required to access online Korean studies resources so that these materials can be more readily available to Korea-related students, scholars, and relevant specialists.

Eligible Applicants

1. Libraries at four-year university institutions abroad that maintain a Korean studies or Korean language center, department, or program or an East Asian studies program
2. University / college libraries or public libraries / institutions that provide services for Korea-related students, scholars, and relevant specialists who could benefit from broadened access to such online resources

Program Support The program extends support to recipient institutions equal to 50% of the subscription / user fees required to access Korean Studies e-resources.

The KF will determine the program support amount after evaluating the applicant's circumstances in regard to the evaluation criteria below.

The maximum program support per library is US $5,000.

Program support is provided for a period of 12 months.

Program Schedule

1. Application Period: July 1 to September 10, 2019(18:00 KST)
2. Notification of Results: December 2019

Please refer to the KF Online Application System (http://apply.kf.or.kr) for the latest announcements on changes to the program requirements prior to completing your application.

Required Documents Application form (proposal, status of Korean studies, e-resources usage data, etc.)

How to Apply Applications should be submitted via the KF Online Application System (http://apply.kf.or.kr)

Evaluation Criteria

1. Scale of the applicant's Korean studies program in terms of number of undergraduate & graduate students and faculty members
2. Extent of usage of Korean studies e-resources (incl. number of resources used in pervious year)
3. Equitable allocation of program support in terms of geographical region and individual institutions

Responsibilities of Recipient Institutions An annual report, in accordance with the KF's report form, must be completed and submitted within one month after the conclusion of the support period.
